Master's Designs Upon the Trestleboard

Brethren,

First let me welcome everyone to a new year, and new positions. Thank you to those who have stepped up to taken on some new roles, or helped fill some needed positions in the line. Every position is important and to know we have all the chairs filled, is a wonderful feeling.

We have a few degrees up and coming, and we will all need to rehearse, so please make an effort to be at the rehearsals. If you need some extra help, please don't be shy and just ask. I would also like to see some of the new younger officer's step up, and start learning some of the lectures. This is of great importance because it helps to give some relief to our senior officers that have been helping us out so much.

I will see you at the next stated meeting with a Fellowcraft Degree.

Fraternally

Wor. Bryon Miller
